Vienna, December 2. N. S.

THE Commotion at Conſtantinople is ſtill talk'd of, and 'tis now ſaid, that the Grand Seignior was not depoſed, but was oblig'd by the Malecontents to cauſe the Grand Vizier to be ſtrangled, after having ſent him to the Seraglio for Shelter, and to ſend home the Empe-'s Hoſtage. On the 26th ult. when Two Thirds Belgrade were deliver'd to the Turks, the Janiſ were not content with that, but pull'd down the liſades, kill'd a Centinel, and rode Sword in hand out the other Third of the Town, till ſuch Time the Commandant of the Citadel march'd out with whole Gariſon, and cauſed thoſe Bravoes to be ſhot, of whom the 3 Ringleaders were immediately ſtrangled, and afterwards 1000 more, beſides 30 put Irons by Order of Ali Baſha, who has the Chaſter of a Gallant Man. This Sort of Accidents, gether with the Turkiſh Army's being quarter'd the Neighbouring Provinces, and the Non-Arriof the Ratification of the Treaty of Peace, oblige Commandant to keep a good Guard. According the laſt Letters from Tranſilvania, the 5000 Colcks, who obtained Leave to paſs thro' that Proince, carry'd an incredible Booty with them, being 5000 Horſe-Loads, into Wallachia. We are ſur'd, that the Diſpenſation for the Minority of the rince of Sultzbach is not only drawn up, but actuly ſent to him; and that he will be inſtall'd with Delay in the Eventual Succeſſion of the Duchies Berg and Juliers.

We hear from Wexford, that a great Number of obbers, who keep in a Body near that Place, had e Impudence to write to Mr. Smith, a Grazier of at Place, to ſend them 4 Bullocks and 12 l. in oney, which they promiſed to pay him in a little me, but if he refuſed they would pay him a Viſit. r. Smith returned for Anſwer, that he had no oney, and what Bullocks he had, were ſold, and as ſorry he could not comply with their Demands; pon which they ſent a Party and took 12 Bullocks, hich they ſlaughtered, but returned the Hides and allow, inviting Mr. Smith at the ſame Time to ome and keep his Chriſtmas with them, where he hould want for nothing, and be kindly entertain'd.

Containing a ſhort Hiſtory of the Diſcoveries and Conqueſts of Spain in America, with a particular Account of the illegal and unchriſtian Means they made uſe of to eſtabliſh their Settlements there: Proving that the ſovereign ſole Dominion claimed by the Crown of Spain to the Weſt-Indies, is founded upon an unjuſtifiable Poſſeſſion; whilſt the Rights and Poſſeſſions of the Britiſh Subjects in thoſe Parts are both agreeable to the Law of Nations, and Principles of Chriſtianity. That America was diſcovered and planted by the ancient Britons 300 Years before Columbus conducted the Spaniards thither; with the Cauſes of their After-hatred to the Engliſh: And ſeveral very remarkable Inſtances of their Treachery and Cruelty towards us, in order to diſcourage and obſtruct our farther Diſcoveries and Settlements. Alſo the Declaration of War againſt Spain by Oliver Cromwell, in 1655, tranſlated from the Latin Original; wherein the Engliſh Right to the Weſt-Indies is plainly demonſtrated, and the Inſults, Murders, and Depredations are particularly ſpecified, which were committed by the Spaniards; and to revenge which that War was declared. The Whole concluding with Reflections on their former and late Conduct, and plain Reaſons why a Certainty of Peace is not to be relied on from that Nation, any longer than they are kept in Awe by the Maritime Forces of Great-Britain.
